

Dress Code

Ballet

Girls agree to wear light pink tights and matching light pink canvas ballet shoes with the approved leotard and skirt in their level's color. All dancewear can be purchased through sodanca.com. (See below) Any undergarments worn must be nude and match the line of the leotard. Dancers have the option to wear colored leotards for rehearsal days. Hair should be in a neat bun for all classes, and no jewelry, with the exception of small earrings.

Boys agree to wear black tights* (with dance belt) and white short sleeve fitted dance shirt or leotard for ballet. Black canvas ballet shoes or white canvas ballet shoes may be worn with matching crew socks. Hair must be secured out of face. *Teen Ballet and younger ballet boys may wear black athletic pants

Musical Theater, Tap, Jazz, Contemporary, Conditioning

Girls should wear a camisole leotard in black OR their ballet dress code color, along with solid black leggings, jazz pants, bike shorts, or athletic pants. Girls wear black crew socks for contemporary, tan jazz shoes for jazz and musical theater, black tap shoes for tap. Older dancers may wear tan t-strap character shoes for musical theater at their teacher's discretion. Boys should wear a fitted white or black t-shirt with black warm-up or athletic pants. Boys wear black jazz shoes and tap shoes.

Hair should be secured away from the face in a neat bun or ponytail for all classes, with no jewelry, with the exception of small earrings.

All dancers must supply their own TheraBand (resistance bands) and yoga mat for all conditioning classes. All dance supplies and dance shoes should be labeled with the dancer's name.
